the Homicide of Thos. Byrnes, Cate Su. BY OF OVER AND TERMINER

THIRD DAY. Fun. 11.—The People on Denois D. Sullican.—Charles letarthy, for the defence, deposed that he has known the risoner for twoive years; he is a hard working man, and character for peace and quietness was very good.

lice, I do not know that he was dismissed for violence to a citizen I think he had a difficulty with a man on a car. Prisoner's Counsel-Sullivan told me he was discharged from the police because he was off his bent.

James H. ifreman, for the defence, deposed to the meeting of the two parties in Greenwich street; heard a tail man with a red shirt ask where bills we were putting up, some one replied. Adderman Smitch slift," another then wanted to bet twenty dollars that Smith would not be the next Adderman; I think it was Sripp offered the bot.
Witness detailed the Secumistances, and further deposed that Stripp appeared to be trying to raise a disturbance, and I put any hand on his shoulder and tried to get him aside; I took him not to unful the man, as he was a little tight, he said a was all right; there was a noise from the tight, he said a was all right; there was a noise from the

and he had said a was all right; there was a noise from the tight, he are the way had and the shot fired as w a stout man there, some one asked him if he was fourt, and Sollivan raised his bands up and zoid to the police, "Offerer, I am under your charge," or your protection.

Cross examined by District Attorney Hall—Lam twentytop seems of one and used to follow the said a province to the police, "Officers, I am under your charge," or your protection.

Cross examined by District Attorney Half—I am twentyone years of age and used to follow the sea; previous to that I was at. "ort Royal, Beaufort, and other Southern ports; I have been a waiter in a saloon, and have worked at bookbinding, and painting, at telegraphing and on the deck; I had not seen Sullivan for some time before that evening; I happened to stop in at a salone where Sullivan was, and he asked me to go along with the party; we went to post bills and then serenade Afferman Smith; I had nothing to do with the posting of the bild; I went for the serenade, and I carried the "bone." The cross-examination of the witness was continued at considerable length.
James B. Traverse deposed to the prisoner's good character for peace and quietness.

Captain James Bryan, of the Police, gave the prisoner a good character for peace and quietness during the time he was on the pilce under witness.

To Mr. Hall—He was dismissed from the police.

Mr. Sedgwick asked what he had been dismissed for.

Mr. Hall objected as it was a master or record.

Captain Ic Camp, of the police, gave Sullivan a good character for peace and quietness.

To rece Motivire also gave him a similar character;
this is the first thing he has heard against him.

Ex Aiderman Henry Smith deposed—I know Sullivan, the defendant: I employed him to post bins for my ex-tion in Peccarber.

To the bissized Attorney—I met him in the park and he asked me to give him some work, and I employed him; I think I only gave sullivan 33, and the men that assisted him $6 each. I owe Sullivan something now; I do not know how much, because he has never presented his bill; I did not know of the serenade; I did not give them any money for that purpose.

Q.—Did you know that Sullivan was in the habit of car-rying a pistol?

I gave $100; I have not become liable for any more.

James Nealis. about twenty years of age, and one of the persons with the prisoner on the night in question, deposed to the allray:—Some one rushed at Sullivan and prashed him age; inst a cart, and I thought I saw him on the ground: saw some one kick Sullivan, but do not know the ground: saw some one kick Sullivan, but do not know who it was.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hall at great length.

Cornelius Calinhan, a lad about 17 years of age, deposed that he was with Sullivan's party on the night in question, but was so far away he could not tell anything that occurred when the shot was fired; he walked to the other side of the street when he heard there was a pistol.

Michael Fgan, another youth, deposed that he was present at the occurrence; when Mr. Byrnes came up on the occasion he asked what they were doing; Sullivan said they were positing bills; he shock hands with Mr. Byrnes; said "I am josting bills for your opposing candidate, but I dou't want you to have any hard feelings against me." after some intrher conversation I heard Mr. Byrnes; said, "you have got a pistol, but there is no occasion for using it," Sullivan suid he had not got-any pistol; Byrnes said, what is that you have in your hand." a young man stepped up alongside of Mr. Sullivan, and Mr. Byrnes told him to stand aside, that Sullivan wanted to give him the pistol; Mr. Stripp, who was trying to get a Sullivan, aid "If you have a pistol we will lick you suy how, and you may —..." Byrnes said to Mr. Stripp (noof his own party) "No, you woult," Stripp made a rush at sullivan, and Byrnes took bold of Stripp and swung him round; saw Byrnes have a hold of Sullivan atterwards, and leaning over him when the shot was fired.

Cross egamined by Mr. Hall—Mr. Byrnes was in good.
